

Legion Magazine publishes this removable Last Post Section twice a year, in spring and fall. This free service recognizes those who have served their country and allows our readers to learn of the passing of comrades with whom they served.

Last Post is reserved for these groups: 1) ordinary members of The Royal Canadian Legion at time of death; 2) RCL life members who were previously ordinary members; and 3) Canadian war veterans (WW II, Korean War, Gulf War, Afghanistan) who were not RCL members at time of death.

Legion Magazine must rely on RCL branches to provide the Last Post information. Please use the current Last Post form dated June 2013, which is available from the Dominion Command Supply Department.

Branches should submit notices to Legion Magazine promptly to ensure timely publication. We only publish in the print magazine those notices received at our Ottawa office within one year of the person's death. We do not publish notices that lack a date of death.

When published in print, the latest entries are also added to the searchable Last Post database on the website www.legionmagazine.com. Late notices will only be entered in the website database, where they will have historical value.

If you wish to save this section, go to its centre, carefully open the two staples, remove the section and then close the staples.

OBITUARY

RAMSEY WITHERS
1930-2014

Former chief of defence staff Ramsey Withers died from a heart attack on Dec. 24 at his home in the Royale Kanata Residence in Kanata, Ont. He was 84.

Born in Scarborough, Ont., the son of Scottish immigrants, Withers served in the regular forces for 35 years and in the militia for a further six.

He graduated from Royal Military College of Canada in 1952 and his first appointment was as a lieutenant in the Royal Canadian Corps of Signals, serving in the Korean War with the Royal 22nd Regiment.

Withers rose through the ranks and was the founding commander of Canadian Forces Northern Region with its headquarters in Yellowknife in 1970. As a major-general, he commanded Canadian Forces Europe. He returned to Canada in 1977 with the rank of lieutenant-general and served as vice-chief of defence staff.

He was named Canada's sixth chief of defence staff in 1980. During his time, Canada signed the deal to acquire CF-18 fighter jets. It was also a period when Canada and the United States were in negotiations on testing cruise missiles in Canada.

Withers retired from the military in 1983 and was appointed deputy minister of Transport Canada from 1983 until his retirement in 1988. He received the Outstanding Achievement Award of the Public Service of Canada and the Commissioner's Award of the Northwest Territories.

"General Ramsey Withers served his country with honour and distinction and his impeccable legacy will remain in the Canadian Armed Forces as well as all the organizations with whom he volunteered his time for many years to come," said Defence Minister Rob Nicholson.

In his retirement, Withers had a busy schedule of volunteer work. He was honorary lieutenant-colonel of the Governor General's Foot Guards. He served as a trustee for the Canadian Museum of Civilization and chairman of its Canadian War Museum Committee. He was also a director of the Canadian Institute of Strategic Studies and an honorary vice-president of Scouts Canada. He continued as a volunteer interpreter at the Canadian War Museum until the week he died.

He was predeceased by his wife, Jean Alison Saunders, in 2011. LM
